

Philadelphia

Read on for this weekend's best events (we've got the deets on a birthday party at Arcadia, a highlight-and-cut discount at Juju, an eco-fab festival in Manayunk, and a charity event at Salon Vanity). Also, we have an exclusive look at Iron Chef Jose Garces's Bucks County farmhouse, a place so charming, it almost makes us want to live on a farm. (Almost.) Happy shopping! — Emily Goulet, Lifestyle Editor

THIS WEEKEND: Sweet Charity (and Free Haircuts!)

Got long locks? Get 'em chopped for free at Salon Vanity during their Locks of Love Day.

LOCKS OF LOVE DONATION

Confession: Our hair is really long. We're not quite at Crystal Gale lengths, but we're skirting close to Demi Moore (and no, it's not nearly as thick and shiny). So we're excited for the chance to change up our look, and the thought of donating our beloved strands to Locks of Love makes the jump to chin-skimming length much easier to take. This Sunday, Salon Vanity (Walnut's so-chic home of great cuts, color and styling—they're two-time BOP winners!) is offering a free haircut, shampoo, blowout and styling to anyone willing to donate their hair to Locks of Love. The only guideline: Hair must be 10 inches in a braided ponytail. Call to make an appointment. Cutting your hair for charity is a no-brainer. The hard part? Deciding between a pixie and a bob.
